

The Sunday Soapbox Series

130 Elm Street, Watch Factory Shoppes, Cheshire, Connecticut

Every other Sunday from 4-7pm

Grand Opening Preview- October 14th, 2007 @ 4pm

Directed and MC'ed by Kenneth Lundquist, Jr. of KLJ; the Sunday Soapbox Series is an exhibition-style collection of various artists' unique presentation and/or original performance art, music, dance, poetry, scenework, and much more. Think 19th century Parisian salon meets a beatnik 'happening' of the 60's~ Art is #1!

Open Call For

Performance Artists

Live Visual Artists

Poets

Actors/Scene Performers

Dancers/Movement Artists

Cabaret-style song performers

Musicians

How to get involved

Collaboration with Sunday Soapbox Series Director/MC Kenneth Lundquist, Jr. is recommended for performance artists, poets, scenes, live visual artists. All presentations are subject to the review of the Series Director/MC.

Contact Kenneth Lundquist, Jr. of KLJ at (203) 264-3102 or klj@kljinc.com.

Details

Both extemporaneous and rehearsed collaborations are encouraged. Rehearsal arrangements will be made with the café owner by the Series Director/MC. A resident accompanist may be available. Performances will be advertised via www.thefunkymonkeycafe.com, www.kljinc.com, press releases, printed materials. Artist(s) should provide concise ad copy. Performances are to be provided free. Offerings maybe collected but not solicited. Peddling of recordings/merchandise and networking of gigs is absolutely allowed and encouraged.

Interior space: 8' by 8' playing space, 2 power outlets, focused ceiling lighting, dimmers. No staging, no wall attachments allowed. Exterior space: Tiered brick courtyard under large tree, seats 31. Two stairways, black railings from tier to lower seating area, w/ ramp; approximately 150 sq. ft upper tier. No electric. Minimal staging allowed. No attachments allowed to tree. One pound max suspension from tree. Access to public restrooms on courtyard only, must be cleaned after.

Artist Liability

All equipment, materials, and participants provided/ removed by artist(s). Liability release waiver and damage liability agreement must be signed by all participants prior to performance. Artists are liable for damages to exterior/interior walls, walkways, bricks, ramp, railing, landscaping, floors, trim, and any property. Artists are expected to protect the space, all surfaces and furniture with the utmost care and consideration. The owner of The Funky Monkey Café & Gallery, and the Series Director/MC reserves the right to cancel any performance for any reason at any time.